Key words. catalogs – stars: variables: general – galaxies: active – methods: statistical – methods: data analysis – errata, addenda

Errors have occurred during the production process. On page 15, Sect. 7, third paragraph, tenth line, the sentence should read: “The number of data points in the HCV light curves ranges from five (our cut-off limit) to 120.” And the citation “Spetsieri et al.

2019” should be “Spetsieri et al., in prep.”, in the first paragraph of Sect. 7.4 (page 19), and in Sect. 8, second to last paragraph (page 21).
